

Beat: News

Prime Minister Addresses Conference Of Directors General Of Police

PM Praises Dedication

Dhordo, Kutch, 21.12.2015, 09:29 Time

USPA NEWS - The Prime Minister, Mr. Narendra Modi delivering his address on the 3rd and concluding day of the Conference of DGPs, at Dhordo, Kutch, Gujarat on December 20, 2015.

PM Praises Dedication And Selfless Service Put In By The Police Officers

The Prime Minister, Mr. Narendra Modi delivered his address on the third and concluding day of the Conference of Directors-General of Police, at Dhordo, Kutch on December 20.

The Prime Minister expressed happiness over the quality and depth of the discussions he had observed, and said this is an indication of the dedication and professional competence of the police force. He called for a clear roadmap to implement the recommendations that emerged from this Conference.

he Prime Minister said that the discussions and inputs involved both junior and senior officers, from across the country, and this had helped break silos, which is a significant achievement.

The Prime Minister said sensitivity should be a vital element of policing, and a flexible institutional framework should be built, which can help imbibe sensitivity towards citizens in the police force. He said police forces should establish links with local communities, and one way of doing this is to celebrate the successes and achievements of people in the community.

He said that when people visit police stations to celebrate their achievements, they would also develop a greater understanding and respect for the work done by police officers. He said people in a community should identify with police stations.

The Prime Minister touched upon subjects such as cyber-security, digital technology and social media, and said police officers should use emerging technologies effectively in their work. He called for greater interaction between the police forces of neighbouring districts across inter-state borders.

The Prime Minister also spoke on the subjects of tourism policing, disaster management and police training.

The Prime Minister praised the dedication and selfless service put in by the police officers, and their commitment to duty, which he said was the essence of the nation's security.

The Prime Minister also gave away the President's medals for distinguished service to IB Officers.

Earlier in the day, the delegates discussed the subject of police universities, and forensic science university.

Home Minister Mr. Rajnath Singh, and Ministers of State for Home, Mr. Kiren Rijju and Mr. Haribhai Parthibhai Chaudhary were present.

Article online:

<https://www.uspa24.com/bericht-6816/prime-minister-addresses-conference-of-directors-general-of-police.html>

Editorial office and responsibility:

V.i.S.d.P. & Sect. 6 MDSIV (German Interstate Media Services Agreement): Doruvu Paul Jagan Babu

Exemption from liability:

The publisher shall assume no liability for the accuracy or completeness of the published report and is merely providing space for the submission of and access to third-party content. Liability for the content of a report lies solely with the author of such report. Doruvu Paul Jagan Babu

Editorial program service of General News Agency:

United Press Association, Inc.
3651 Lindell Road, Suite D168
Las Vegas, NV 89103, USA
(702) 943.0321 Local
(702) 943.0233 Facsimile
info@unitedpressassociation.org
info@gna24.com
www.gna24.com